

Please leave the State's NO Call Laws alone. Do NOT pass legislation that over-rides States' Rights in this issue. I chose to have my name put on the No Call list to protect the sanctity of my time and life at home. Intrusions by uninvited phone calls from telemarketers are more than a nuisance, they are a rude interruption. If I want to buy something, I will seek out a vendor at my own leisure.